

I bring to You my life, a living sacrifice
Father, have Your way
Let Your Kingdom come, let Your will be done
With open hands, I pray

Hallowed be Your name, Hallowed be Your name
You deserve the glory, You deserve the praise
Hallowed be Your name, Hallowed be Your name
You deserve the glory, You deserve the praise
Hallowed be Your name

You're the only One, high and lifted up
Forever and always
Words are not enough, I can't offer much
All that I can say

Is Hallowed be Your name, Hallowed be Your name
You deserve the glory, You deserve the praise
Hallowed be Your name, Hallowed be Your name
You deserve the glory, You deserve the praise, hallowed be
Your name

Father, make me Your temple, make me Your sanctuary
A heart where You can dwell, a heart that gives You glory
Make me a house of worship, my soul a place of prayer
'Til every part of me cries holy, holy

Father make me Your temple, make me Your sanctuary
A heart where You can dwell, a heart that gives You glory
Make me a house of worship, my soul a place of prayer
Till every part of me cries holy, holy

Holy holy, holy holy
'Til every part of me cries

Hallowed be Your name, Hallowed be Your name
You deserve the glory, You deserve the praise
Hallowed be Your name, Hallowed be Your name
You deserve the glory, You deserve the praise, hallowed be
Your name

In the hidden and unseen, in the earth and here in me
Father have Your way, hallowed be Your name
