

Return to rest o my soul
He's drawing near to me
Remember He's been faithful
And He will always be
Steadfast in His nature
Mercy is His heart
And every fear and worry
Can rest here in His arms

In God's hands
In God's hands
I'll always be in
God's hands
Protector Provider
Always and forever

In God's hands
In God's hands

Wherever I am going
I'll never walk alone
You always go before me
You're where I place my hope
The Author of my story
Perfecter of my faith
You'll finish what You started
Tomorrow and today are in

God's hands
In God's hands
I'll always be in
God's hands
Protector Provider
Always and forever

In God's hands
In God's hands

I lift my hands to God
No matter what may come
In Your perfect love
I'll always have enough

I lift my hands to God
No matter what may come
In Your perfect love
I'll always have enough

I lift my hands to God
No matter what may come
In Your perfect love
I'll always have enough

In God's hands
In God's hands
I'll always be in
God's hands
Protector Provider
Always and forever

In God's hands
In God's hands
I'll always be in

God's hands
Protector Provider
Always and forever

In God's hands
In God's hands
In God's hands
In God's hands

In God's hands
In God's hands
I'll always be in
God's hands
Protector Provider
Always and forever
