

Oh, my God's been good to me
Oh, the miracles I have seen
The mountains He's moved
And the way that He's proved
His faithfulness
He is here without a doubt
He is moving in this house
I believe chains are breaking
I believe hearts are changing

When Your power's on display
Oh, I can't help but praise

Then sings my soul
Worthy of worship
There's no other name I know
That runs to my rescue
He's mighty to save

He brought me from death back to life
Out of darkness and into the light
Oh, He's called me by name with a power the grave can't hold
Then sings my soul

Until my time on earth is done
I will worship 'til kingdom come
The wind in my chest will return its best
And praise the Lord
The King's coming, prepare the way
But I won't wait until that day
I believe today He's worthy
I believe by then He'll still be

When Your power's on display

Then sings my soul
Worthy of worship
There's no other name I know
That runs to my rescue
He's mighty to save

He brought me from death back to life
Out of darkness and into the light
Oh, He's called me by name with a power the grave can't hold
Then sings my soul

Then sings my soul
Then sings my soul

Before my breakthrough
I will praise through
The darkest valleys I face
I'll lift a song of worship
And watch hell scatter
And watch His power at work
When I worship, He works
When I worship, He works

Before my breakthrough

And watch hell scatter

Before my breakthrough
When I worship, He works

Then sings my soul
Worthy of worship
That runs to my rescue

He brought me from death back to life

Then sings my soul
Worthy of worship
That runs to my rescue

He brought me from death back to life
Then sings my soul
